

February Highlights

Candle light ceremony

18.02.20: The Candle Light Ceremony for students of Class V was held in Helen Jerwood Auditorium, in the school. The event began with an Invocation to the Almighty; followed by the lighting of the lamp and passing of the candle light by our honourable Principal, Ms. Anupma Singh, Primary Co-ordinator Ms. Astha Parashar to the students of class V. The ceremony symbolizes the carrying forward of the light of wisdom to fulfil duties and responsibilities with diligence.

On this pious occasion, students received souvenirs as a token of love and blessings, they were also recognised for their hard-work and stellar performance in various fields. They were decorated by our respected Principal Ma'am, who motivated the children with her words of wisdom to keep the values and the love of God intact in their hearts and that the light may brighten the path of others also as they keep moving forward in their lives. The Primary Co-ordinator Ms. Astha Parashar proposed the vote of thanks. It was a day of true reflection and enlightenment.
