INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' DAY

International worker's Day is celebrated on May 1st every year to honour the sacrifice and contributions of the workers throughout the world. We showed gratitude to our workforces through Card/bookmark making activity in classes VI-XII organized by the sociology club of our school. The students gifted the cards and bookmarks to our mentor-Principal Ma'am, teaching and non-teaching staff.

Spread The Joy of Reading

Every year, April 23 is celebrated as a world book day, to honour the great works by author around the world. The special day has been marked by UNESCO as an attempt to inculcate the love for reading, writing books, translations, publishing and copyright. The day also marks the death anniversary of the world's greatest writer William Shakespeare. UNESCO aims to celebrate the occasion as charitable purpose for children from all the backgrounds, developing a life.

On the occasion, The Reading Club of the school got the wonderful opportunity to visit and donate the books to the students at Goonj Donation Centre, Sarita Vihar, Delhi.
